

"The Town Square"

A civic space used informally everyday, but also for holiday and civic gatherings: Memorial and Veterans Day, 4th of July, Christmas, political campaigns, etc.

Two and three story buildings, up against the right-of-way along with street trees and light poles give this six lane street a strong edge that makes the street feel smaller.