I. Access to Services

The Mesa County Workforce Center (MCWFC) and Western Colorado Community College (WCCC) will continue their partnership in identifying and providing specific training to local employers to help address their hiring and training needs. The MCWFC and WCCC will also continue to partner in providing career pathways to the youth through the local school districts.

II. Service Delivery

- Referrals from MCWFC to WCCC
- Referrals from WCCC to MCWFC
- Enrollment
- Community Engagement/Outreach
- Sharing of information
- Sector Partnerships through collaboration of community partners
- Career pathways development in collaboration with community partners

III. Current Resources

Describe how ongoing operations will be funded: On-going operations for trainings and career pathways are funded through federal WIOA support. If needed, other funding streams listed below will support the outlined initiatives:

- In-kind – reciprocating use of training personnel and facilities
- Private entities - explore grant and support opportunities from private civic and philanthropic organizations
- Alternative financing – not currently used but will jointly explore grant opportunities

IV. Referrals

- Methods of referrals between partners for appropriate services and activities
 - Continue to provide updated program information between WCCC and the MCWFC
- Tracking Referrals and related activities
 - Continue to have WCCC representation at WDB meetings to ensure updated program information and seamless referrals
 - Develop metrics to measure collaborative efforts from both parties

V. Assurances

This MOU will be reviewed annually, in June of each year it is effect and if substantial changes have occurred, modify and renew the agreement.

The Workforce Development Board will:

- Continue to partner with the local Title I provider to improve access to activities leading to employment and/or skill gain. The local provider will maintain active involvement with co-located partners in an effort to increase enrollments and referrals, and take a primary position in employer outreach for Business attraction and retention.

- Continue to develop partnerships with employers and training providers to develop specific career pathways.
- Leverage funds by co-enrolling individuals that are appropriate for both youth and adult programs to support training and career pathways.
- Continue partnering with program providers to provide supportive services such as transportation assistance, work uniforms, etc. to eligible individuals with barriers to employment.
- The youth program providers regularly provide exposure for youth to the various training programs and career pathways working with partner agencies. Postsecondary exposure is paired with work-based learning opportunities such as Career Exploration activities, internships, and Work Experiences to help the youth determine their training interest. Youth program providers also provide supportive services such as transportation assistance to and from education, training, and employment activities for youth with barriers to employment.
- Connect with representatives of secondary and post-secondary education programs in the local area in order to develop and implement career pathways that meet the current and developing needs of business.
